

Conference Program of Sessions

First Day

Wednesday 1 May 2024

Opening Session

Conference Hall (09:00 - 09:40)

Verses from the Holy Quran

Speech of the KILAW president

Conference sponsor's speech

Conference guests' speech

Honoring the sponsor of the ceremony

Documentary film about the conference

Break

(09:40 - 10:00)

Plenary Session (1)

Legal Higher Education and Artificial Intelligence: Key Trends and Mutual Influences

Conference Hall - (10:00 - 11:45)

University Legal Educational and Academic Rules, Values, and Traditions in the Era of Artificial Intelligence

Prof. Mohammad Al-Moqatei, Professor of Public Law and President of KILAW

Prof. Salah Alnajem, Professor of Computational Linguistics and Natural Language Processing at Kuwait University, & Founder and CEO of Information Age for I.T. Consultations

Teaching Artificial Intelligence: AI in Doctrinal, Skills & Simulation Courses

Prof. Dr. Anthony Page, Professor, Dean, College of Law, Florida International University, USA

Focus On Values with the Rise of AI

Dr Eugene Kheng Boon Tan, Associate Professor, School of Law, Singapore Management University,

Integrating Generative Artificial Intelligence into Legal Education and Research: Experiences from the Law School of the University of Macau

Dr. Sara Magliorini, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Macau, China

Generative AI: Key Implications for Legal Practice, Legal Education and Education Fraud

Professor Michael Draper, School of Law, Swansea University, UK

Break (11:45 - 12:00)

Session (2) Parallel

Artificial Intelligence in the Balance of Law: Basic Concepts and the Crisis of Civil Responsibility in the Face of Artificial Intelligence

Hall F130 - (12:00 - 13:30)

Artificial Intelligence: What and How - Duality of Question and Answer: An Analytical Reading from a Legal Perspective

Prof. Mohammad Irfan Al-Khatib, Professor of Civil Law, Department of Law

Ahmed Bin Mohammed Military College, Doha, Qatar

Civil Liability for Damages from the Unlawful Use of Artificial Intelligence Works

An Analytical Study in Light of Kuwaiti Civil Legislation

Prof. Moussa Rezig, Professor of Civil Law, KILAW

Artificial Intelligence and Civil Liability

Prof. Mohammad Mahfouz, Professor of Civil Law, and Former Dean, Naif University for Security Sciences, Riyadh, KSA

Artificial Intelligence in Upstream Petroleum Agreements

Dr. Sheikha Al-Hilali, Assistant Professor, KILAW

Compensation of Moral Damage as an Instrument to Safeguard 'Fair AI'

Prof. Dr. Jan De Bruyne, Assistant Professor, KU Leuven University, Belgium

Victor Scollaert, Doctoral researcher, Ku Leuven University, Belgium

Naoual El Yattouti, Doctoral researcher, KU Leuven University, Belgium

Session (3) parallel

Uses of Artificial Intelligence in Legal and University Education:

Curricula and Controls

Hall F131 - (12:00 - 13:30)

The use of Artificial Intelligence in Scientific Research

Dr. Bashayer Al-Mukhaizeem, Assistant Professor, KILAW

Comprehensive AI Ethics Policy in University Teaching and Learning Process: The Case of Students of the College of Social Sciences at Kuwait University

Dr. Dalal Yousef Al-Budaiwi, Assistant Professor, College of Social Sciences,

Kuwait University

Legal Education, Employability and Artificial Intelligence

Dr. Simon Sneddon, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Northampton, UK

Integrating Generative AI Into Law School Curriculum Competence, Ethics and Professionalism

Dr Anna Conley, Assistant Professor, Alexander Blewett III School of Law, University of Montana, USA

AI, Legal Writing, and the Future of Legal Documentation: Examining Cultural Assumptions and AI's Replication of Cultural Competency

Dr Susan Taanner, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, Louisville University, USA

Session (4) Parallel

Criminal Liability and Artificial Intelligence: Problems and Solutions

Hall F132 - (12:00 - 13:30)

Does the “Post Office Horizon” Scandal in the UK hold lessons for AI and systems of accountability?

Prof. Dr. John McEldowney, Professor, Faculty of Law, Warwick University, UK

Criminal Liability for Artificial Intelligence Crimes: An Analytical Study

Prof. Dr. Fahd Hadi Yaslam Habtoor, Professor of Criminal Law, College of Sharia and Law, University of Tabuk, KSA

Prohibited Practices of Artificial Intelligence According to the Draft European Law on Artificial Intelligence and the Legislation of the States of Kuwait and Palestine

Dr. Jihad Al-Kiswani, Associate Professor of Criminal Law, Faculty of Law, Al-Quds University, Palestine

Applying Artificial Intelligence Systems to Criminal Investigation Work: A Prospective Analytical Study

Dr. Hamad Al-Fahad, Assistant Professor of Criminal Law, KILAW

The Use of Artificial Intelligence in Combating Corruption Crimes and the Resulting Criminal Liability

Mr. Mohammad Al-Noubi, Teaching Assistant, Kuwait International Law School

PhD Researcher, University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Lunch break (13:30 - 14:30)

Session (5) parallel

The Ethics of Artificial Intelligence in International Laws, Conventions, and Islamic Jurisprudence

Hall F130 - (14:30 - 16:00)

Artificial Intelligence Ethics between Theory and Practice: A Comparative Study between Positive Law and Islamic Jurisprudence

Prof. Mohammad Talafha, Professor of Islamic Jurisprudence, and Dean of the College of Sharia and Islamic Studies, Yarmouk University, Jordan

A Look at the UN Document on Ethical Recommendations for Artificial Intelligence

Dr. Abdullah Mohammed Abdul Karim Al Mutawa, International Expert and Educational Consultant
Associate Professor, College of Engineering and Petroleum, Kuwait University

AI and Hate Speech Through the Lens of the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights and UNESCO's ICT initiatives: Challenges, Opportunities, and Implications on Global and Local AI Governance

Ayako Hatano, PhD Researcher, Faculty of Law, University of Oxford, UK

The Hard Problem of AI and Human Dignity

Dr. Jacope Martire, Senior lecturer in Law, faculty of Law, University of Bristol, UK

The Ethics of Employing Artificial Intelligence Among Law School Students

Dr. Abdulaziz Al-Nashmi, Assistant Professor of Comparative Jurisprudence and Islamic Studies, KILAW

Session (6) parallel

Artificial Intelligence Systems in the Field of Judiciary, Procedures and Principles of Achieving Justice

Hall F131 - (14:30 - 16:00)

Artificial Intelligence and the World of Arbitration: between Excessive Desired Practice and Realism in Forced Alignment

Dr. Yousef Al-Ali, Assistant Professor of Private International Law, Vice President of KILAW

Dr. Mahmoud Al-Mughrabi, Associate Professor of Private Law, KILAW

The AI Judge: When might it be acceptable for machines to make legal decisions?

Prof. John Morison, Professor, Faculty of Law, Queen's University of Belfast, UK

AI in Arbitration: Navigating Legal Landscapes and Ethical Frontiers

Prof. Dr. Belen Olmos Giupponi, Law Professor, Head of the Law School at Middlesex London, UK

Predictive Justice in Civil and Commercial Disputes - Issuing Judicial Rulings by Using Artificial Intelligence: An Applied Analytical Study

Dr. Samah Khaman, Assistant Professor of Civil Procedure Law, KILAW

Transformative Impact of Blockchain Technology and Smart Contracts on Dispute

Resolution: Legal Challenges and Other Implications

David S. Christie, Associate Dean – Academic Development and Student Experience, & Charles Ho Wang Mak, Assistant Professor, & Joseph Mante, Principal Lecturer, Law School, Robert Gordon University, Scotland, UK

Session (7) parallel

Artificial Intelligence and Sustainable Development

Hall F132 - (14:30 - 16:00)

Sustainable Artificial Intelligence is a Development Necessity and a Regulatory Imperative

Prof. Osama Al-Fouly, Professor of public finance and economics, and former dean, Faculty of Law, Alexandria University, Egypt

Tax in the Age of Artificial Intelligence

Prof. Maysoon Bouzid and Dr. Jamal Al-Ajroud, Professor of Administrative and Financial Law, Institute of Public Administration, Riyadh, KSA

Regulatory Challenges in the Intersec3on of AI and Sustainable Finance

Prof. Dr. Flora Huang, Professor of Law, Faculty of Law, University of Derby, UK

Artificial Intelligence and Sustainability: A Global Governance Perspective

Dr. Francesca Mazi, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, Brunel University of London, UK

Reviewing Global Standards in the Legal Regulation of Artificial Intelligence Technologies

Dr. Mohammad Alhihi, Associate Professor of Private Law, KILAW

Commentator:

Dr. Hamd AlHasawi, Associate Professor of Public Finance and Economics, and Acting Dean of the School of Governance and Systems

Break (16:00 - 16:15)

Session (8) parallel

Criminal Liability in Artificial Intelligence Crimes and Privacy Challenges

Hall F132 - (16:15 - 17:45)

Protecting Digital Privacy in Light of the Problems of Dealing with Artificial Intelligence

Prof. Amal Mamlouk, & Prof. Faten Hawwa, Professors of Private Law, College of Law, Qatar University

GPT Chat Applications between Freedom of Use and Violation of Rights:

A comparative-Descriptive study from the Perspective of Criminal Law

Dr. Muaath Al-Mulla, Associate Professor of Criminal Law, and Director of the Diploma in Law Programme, KILAW

Ms. Farah Al-Azmi, legal researcher, Kuwait Lawyers Association

The Extent to Which the Rules of Criminal Liability Apply to Crimes Committed by Artificial Intelligence in KSA

Dr. Samah Al-Agha, Associate Professor of Criminal Law, Al-Hekma University

Jeddah, KSA

Criminal Liability Resulting from Attacks Committed Using Artificial Intelligence Technology as a New Form of Cybercrime

Dr. Muath Al-Zoubi, Associate Professor of Criminal Law, School of Law, University of Jordan

Legal Controls for Applying the Theory of Potential Crime to the Criminal Actions of a Self-Determining Robot

Dr. Hanan Al-Husseini, Associate Professor of Criminal Law, College of Law, King Saud University, KSA

Session (9) parallel

Impacts and Applications of Artificial Intelligence on Climate, Jobs and Shipping

Hall F131 - (16:15 - 17:45)

The Impact of Artificial Intelligence on the Labour Market: A Comparative Study

Prof. Zainab Awadallah, Professor of Economics and Public Finance, Faculty of Law, Kuwait University

The advantages and disadvantages of using AI to combat global heating

Professor Sam Adelman, School of Law, University of Warwick, UK

Artificial Intelligence and its Impact on Professions and Judicial Systems

Prof. Bernhard Maier, Professor, Faculty of Law, King's College London, UK

Climate Change and Sustainable Consumption: Where Are We Now? How Can We Speed Things up? Can Artificial Intelligence Help with This?

Dr. Judith Spiegel, Assistant Professor, KILAW

The Impact of New Technology on Maritime Shipping

Dr. Talal Al-Adwani, Assistant Professor of Maritime Law, KILAW

Session (10) parallel

The Effects of Artificial Intelligence on Trade and Competition Laws and the Functioning of Financial Markets and Companies

Hall F130 - (16:15 - 17:45)

Monetary Policy Making in Central Banks via Artificial Intelligence, Economic Goals and Legal Challenges

Dr. Loyal Mansour, Assistant Professor of Public Finance and Economics, KILAW

Prof. Ahmed Ichrahieh, Professor of Civil Law, KILAW

Artificial Intelligence and Competition Law: Algorithmic Abuses and Remedies

Dr. Sofia Oliveira Pais, Associate Professor, faculty of Law, Universidade Catolica Portuguesa, Portugal

Artificial Intelligence in Financial Markets

Dr. Lulwah Al Bin Ali, Assistant Professor, KILAW

State Deputy, Department for Legal Advice and Legislation, Council of Ministers, State of Kuwait

Artificial Intelligence and Blockchain: The Future of International Trade Transacting but Hurdles on the Way

Dr Emmanuel Laryea, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, Monash University, Australia

Smart Arbitration as an Alternative Means of Resolving Commercial Disputes

Mr. Khaled Salem Al-Saeedi & Mr. Abdullah Majed Al-Tarkait, teaching assistants, KILAW

Day Two - Plenary Session (II)

Thursday 2 May 2024

Artificial Intelligence and its Effects in the Field of Rights and Freedoms, Management and Governance Systems

Conference Hall - (09:00 - 11:00)

‘From Gutenberg to Zuckerberg: Three Stages of Free Speech Since the Rise of the Modern State’

Prof. Eric Heinze, Professor of Law & Humanities, Executive Director, (CLDS) Centre for Law Democracy, and Society, School of Law, Queen Mary, University of London, UK

Administrative Decisions Delivered by Artificial Intelligence (Legitimacy and Application)

Dr. Ahmed Al-Otaibi, Associate Professor and Head of the Public Law Department, KILAW

Mrs. Fajer Al-Qassar, Teaching Assistant, KILAW

Constitutional Protection of Personal Data in the Face of the Digital Revolution and the Increasing Use of Artificial Intelligence

Dr. Saad Alenezi & Dr. Mohammed Al-Fahad, Assistant Professors of Public Law, KILAW

Ethical and Legal Challenges of Artificial Intelligence in Light of Human Rights

Dr. Abeer Al-Obaidi, Associate Professor, Systems Department, Taif University, KSA

The Role of the Administrative Judiciary in Protecting Basic Freedoms from the Dangers of Artificial Intelligence

Dr. Amina Ghani, Associate Professor of Administrative Law, Faculty of Law,

University of Oran 2, Algeria

Break (11:00 - 11:15)

Session (12) Parallel

Effects of Generative Artificial Intelligence on Intellectual Property Rules, on Patents and on Consumer Protection

Hall F130 - (11:15 - 12:45)

The Right to Authorship in AI Generative Works: A Comparative Study

Dr Rohan Kariwasam, Professor and Director of Research, School of Law, Anglia Ruskin University

Generative Artificial Intelligence: Challenge of Creativity in Copyright Laws

Dr Ozgur Arikan, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, Oxford University, UK

From Imitation to Transformation: Intellectual Property Rights Dynamics in Construction Artificial Intelligence: A Comparative Study of Kuwaiti Law and American Law

Prof. Haitham Fadlallah, Professor of Private Law, Faculty of Law, Lebanese University

The Requirement for an Invention and AI

Dr. Krista Rantasaar, Lecturer, Faculty of Law, University of Eastern Finland

Consumer Protection in the Face of Artificial Intelligence: the Kuwaiti Legislator's Approach
Compared to European Union Legislation

Dr. May Hammoud, Associate Professor of Civil Law, KILAW

Commentator

Dr. Sami Al-Enezi, Assistant Professor of Civil Law, College of Commercial Studies,
PAAET, State of Kuwait

Session (13) Parallel

National and Regional Legal Regulation for Dealing with Artificial Intelligence and its Effects on International Laws and Disputes

Hall F131 - (11:15 - 12:45)

Comparing National Strategies and Frameworks on AI: The UK, US, and the EU

Dr. Tasnim Ahmed, Senior Lecturer in Law, School of Business and Law, Liverpool John Moores University, UK

A critical assessment of the Global Impact of the EU Regulation on Artificial Intelligence

Dr. Sideek Mohamed Seyad, Associate Professor in European Integration Law, Faculty of Law, Stockholm University, Sweden

Artificial Intelligence Weapons in Armed Conflicts between Restriction and Permissibility

Prof. Abdul Latif Dahiya, Professor of Public International Law, Faculty of Law Mohamed Boudiaf University, M'sila, Algeria

Artificial Intelligence Systems: Security and Military Applications in Light of the Rules of Law (The Acceleration of the Challenge in the Face of the Slowness of Solutions)

Dr. Rizq Ahmed Salmoudi, Associate Professor of Public International Law, Dean of the Faculty of Law. & Dr. Ahmed Hosni Ashkar, Assistant Professor of Public Law, College of Graduate Studies, Arab American University, Jenin, Palestine

Application of Artificial Intelligence to the Right to Work in International and EU Law

Dr. Farah Yassin, Associate Professor of Public International Law, KILAW

Commentator:

Dr. Khaled Al-Yaqout, Assistant Professor of Public International Law, KILAW

Session (14) parallel

Artificial Intelligence in the Banking Sector and Islamic Financial Transactions

Hall F132 - (11:15 - 12:45)

The Role of Artificial Intelligence in Developing Islamic Finance Contracts

Prof. Kamal Tawfiq Hattab, Professor of Islamic Economics, College of Sharia and Islamic Studies, Kuwait University (formerly)

The Role of Generative Artificial Intelligence in Managing Speculative Financing Risks in Islamic Banks

Prof. Ashraf Dawaba, Professor of Finance and Economics, Istanbul Sabahattin Zaim University, Türkiye

Artificial Intelligence and its Applications in Forensic Auditing

Dr. Abdul Rahman Al-Baloul, Assistant Professor of Comparative Jurisprudence and Islamic Studies, KILAW

Dr. Mutlaq Al-Jasser, Associate Professor of Comparative Jurisprudence and Sharia Politics
College of Sharia and Islamic Studies, Kuwait University

Potential of AI Chatbots in Islamic Banking: A Case Study of Boubyan Islamic Bank's Chatbot (Musaed) in The State of Kuwait

Dr Soha Alterkait, Assistant Professor, Comparative Jurisprudence and Islamic Studies Department, KILAW

Employing Artificial Intelligence in the Banking Sector: The Digital Banking Model

Dr. Sayed Hashem Abdul Razzaq Al-Hanyan, Assistant Professor of Finance and Economics, KILAW

Lunch break (12:45 - 13:45)

Session (15) parallel

Artificial Intelligence: Use in the Field of Law Language and Technology Transfer

The Need to Abide by Transparency and Protection of Privacy

Hall F132 - (13:45 - 15:15)

Generative AI and the Legal Profession: Emerging Issues at the Intersection of Legal Tech and Ethics

Professor Uche Ewelukwa Ofodile, SJD, E.J. Ball Professor, School of Law, University of Arkansas, USA

The Language of Law in Multilingual Legislation - The Challenges and Problems of Reconciliation: European Legislation as a Model and Artificial Intelligence Tool

Dr. Bilal Sandid, Associate Professor of Public Law, Kuwait International Law School

Dr. Abdel Majeed Al-Maghrabi, Assistant Professor of Private Law, Faculty of Law, Lebanese University

Artificial Intelligence and the Intersection with Data Protection and Data Privacy- An EU and international perspective

Prof. Suzanne Rab, barrister at Serle Court Chambers in London, & law lecturer at the University of Oxford, & Visiting Professor at Imperial College London, & Professor of Commercial Law at Brunel University, London

Commitment to Algorithmic Transparency as a Guarantee of User Protection in Light of the European Digital Services Law for 2023

Dr. Khalil Al Busaidi, Assistant Professor, College of Law, Al Sharqiya University, Sultanate of Oman

Dr. Muhammad Al-Jahouri, Assistant Professor, Arab Open University, Sultanate of Oman

The Role of Artificial Intelligence as an Enabling Tool for Technology Transfer and Localization

Dr. Jassim Bishara, Assistant Professor, KILAW

Session (16) parallel

The Effects of Artificial Intelligence on Arbitration, Judicial, and Blockchain Systems

Hall F131 - (13:45 - 15:15)

A.I. and Asylum Decision Making in the United States

Prof. Bill Hing, Professor, Faculty of Law, University of San Francisco, USA

How Artificial Intelligence is Changing Judicial Decision-Making

Prof. Ray Wothe Campbell, Professor, Faculty of Law, Peking University, China

International Commercial Arbitration and Artificial Intelligence

Prof. Lotfi El-Shazly, Professor of Private Law and former Dean, Faculty of Legal Sciences

University of Carthage, Tunisia

The Impact of Artificial Intelligence on the Paper Prepared to Prove the Creditor's Right: The Smart Executive Document

Dr. Abdullah Al-Rumh, Assistant Professor of Advocacy Law, KILAW

Smart Litigation between Hopes and Challenges - The Extent to Which Smart Litigation Can Be Applied in The Sultanate of Oman as a Model

Dr. Saif bin Nasser bin Abdullah Al-Maamari, Assistant Professor of Civil Law, College of Law, Sultan Qaboos University, Sultanate of Oman. & Ms. Maryam bint Salem bin Saif Al-Wahhabi, Legal Researcher, Ministry of Health, Sultanate of Oman

The Use of Artificial Intelligence in Legal Fatwas - Advantages and Disadvantages:

A Jurisprudential Analytical Study

Dr. Abdul Rahman Al-Kharaz, Assistant Professor of Comparative Jurisprudence and Islamic Studies, KILAW

Session (17) parallel

Discrimination in Artificial Intelligence Technologies, its applications, and Judicial Trends Regarding it and Strategic Methods for Integrating it into Education

Hall F130 - (13:45 - 15:15)

Discrimination related to Artificial Intelligence Technologies in the European and American Systems: The Private Sector as a Model

Dr. Saleh bin Hamad bin Mohammed Al Barashdi, Associate Professor of Commercial Law, and Dean of the College of Law, Sultan Qaboos University, Sultanate of Oman. & Dr. Radwa Al-Samman, Visiting Professor, College of Law, Cornell University, USA

Automation and Artificial Intelligence in Air Transportation: Liability Issues in Advanced Air Mobility

Dr. Andrea Trimarchi, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Bologna, Italy

The Patient's Right to Confidentiality and Respect for Private Life in The Face of Artificial Intelligence Applications

Dr. Abdul Rahman Al-Hajri, Assistant Professor of Public Law, KILAW

Defining AI in an Autonomous Sky

Dr. Benjamyn I. Scott, Assistant Professor, International Institute of Air and Space Law, and eLaw – Center for Law and Present Digital Technologies, Leiden University, Netherlands

British Judicial Trends Regarding the Legal Eligibility of Artificial Intelligence as an Inventor after the Supreme Court Ruling in the Thaler Case (December 2023)

Dr. Horace Young, Associate Professor of Commercial Law, College of Law, University of Leicester, UK

All In: Strategic Approaches to Incorporating AI into Legal Higher Education

Dr. Caitlain Devereaux Lewis, Assistant Professor, Albany Law School, USA

Break (15:15 - 15:40)

Student research session

Conference Hall (15:40 - 17:00)

Closing Session

Conference Hall (17:00 - 17:45)